

Hindustan Power's CSR Department Conducts Bhoomi Pujan for Road Construction in Gunwari Village

Anuppur, February 10, 2025 – In a significant step towards social development and strengthening infrastructure, the CSR department of Hindustan Power has initiated the construction of a road connecting Gunwari village. The Bhoomi Pujan ceremony for this road was conducted today, marking the commencement of the project. The road, stretching 1.50 kilometers in length and 3.75 meters in width, will connect Takholi Tiraha to Gunwari village, ensuring smoother transportation for the residents.

The event witnessed the participation of esteemed village representatives and dignitaries, including Ganesh Singh Gond, Sarpanch of Gunwari-Amganwa village; Janpad Member Chandra Prakash Jaiswal; Deputy Sarpanch Jeevan Lal Kewat; Former Deputy Sarpanch Lekhram Singh Rathore, and other local residents. The ceremony was conducted with traditional rituals, including coconut-breaking and prayers, to formally commence the construction work. The villagers expressed their gratitude towards Hindustan Power for initiating this essential infrastructure project.

Prominent Hindustan Power officials present at the event included R.K. Khatana, Head of HR and Administration; Satyam Salil, Head of CSR; Vijay Soni, Head of Land Acquisition; and Gaurav Pathak, Public Relations Officer.

On this occasion, R.K. Khatana, Head of HR and Administration, remarked: "Hindustan Power prioritizes social development. This road will not only improve connectivity for the villagers but also enhance economic and social activities in the region."

Ganesh Singh Gond, Sarpanch of Gunwari village, stated: "The renovation of this road was a long-standing demand of the local community, as people faced difficulties in commuting. With its construction, residents will experience significant convenience, and the region's development will accelerate. We sincerely thank Hindustan Power for this crucial initiative and hope the company continues contributing to such developmental projects."

Former Deputy Sarpanch Lekhram Singh Rathore added: "The company's officials always respond positively to the requests of public representatives regarding local needs. This road renovation project is a recent example of their commitment."

Concluding the event, R.K. Khatana assured the villagers that Hindustan Power remains committed to fulfilling its corporate social responsibility (CSR) by continuously working on initiatives related to education, healthcare, infrastructure, and other community needs in the future.
